

DR. LAWRENCE B. HEIDT (PHS 1923)

Dr. Heidt overcame limitations placed on him after falling from a tree at an early age to become a physics and chemistry professor at Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Dr. Heidt owns two patents and was nominated for a Nobel Prize before his 1983 death in Arlington, MA.